Come live where people vacation! With perfect weather, 7 miles of beaches, and over 60 miles of trails, this year-round staycation can be your daily living in the City of Carlsbad.

The Parks Services Manager will be a part of the Parks & Recreation leadership team and be responsible for planning, organizing, and directing the activities of the Parks Division of the Department. This includes coordinating activities with other departments, governmental agencies, and outside organizations and providing coaching, strategic thinking, and technical and administrative staff support. This position supervises both the management level and represented employees to coordinate the work activities of the Division.

The ideal candidate will be well-rounded in all areas of parks management in a public service setting. They must be a creative and solution-oriented professional who will uphold high standards, help customers navigate processes, and ensure good experiences and excellent service levels to all project stakeholders, doing so with a hybrid team of in-house staff and contracted labor. The ideal candidate will work collaboratively with other departments and communicate the information learned to direct reports on the management team. Experience in contract bids, awards, and contract management in a governmental setting is a must in this role.
