

California Tahoe Conservancy
South Lake Tahoe, California

Executive Officer

Annual salary range: $142,404 to $158,628

Application deadline: Open until filled.

First resume review: Monday, February 28, 2022.

The California Tahoe Conservancy is seeking a dynamic leader dedicated to environmental protection and restoration.

If you want a career where you will:

- Pursue your passion for protecting and preserving the beautiful Lake Tahoe Basin.
- Help lead and support an amazing team.
- See your hard work and enthusiasm reflected in the community around you.
- Be part of history as the third Executive Officer for this exceptional agency.
- Promote diversity, equity, and inclusion.

Then this opportunity is for you!

The California Tahoe Conservancy (Conservancy) is a state agency established in 1985 with a mission to lead California's efforts to restore and enhance the Lake Tahoe Basin's (Basin) extraordinary natural and recreational resources. For more than three decades, the Conservancy has played a significant role in shaping the landscape and economy of the Basin.

The Executive Officer will have a positive attitude and thrive on diverse challenges each day. They will use their exceptional written and verbal communication skills to act as a spokesperson for the Conservancy before public groups, news media, and at events such as the annual Lake Tahoe Summit. The ideal candidate will have a strong political acumen to collaborate with multiple agencies at federal, tribal, state, and local levels while maintaining the Conservancy's goals and purpose. The Executive Officer will be able to look towards the future and be a proactive leader while encouraging diversity, equity, and inclusion at the Conservancy. Experience acquiring and leveraging grant funding, and the ability to integrate amongst high-profile governmental agencies, are a must for this role.
